

CURRICULUM VITAE

Richard J. Weiler LL.B.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Recognized as one of Canada's foremost commercial mediators, Rick Weiler is also experienced in conducting arbitrations and med-arbs of commercial, construction, employment and insurance-related matters. Rick has been mediator for over 25 years, mediating approximately 3,500 cases, and was the first Canadian mediator to be certified by the International Mediation Institute and he has been a regular contributor to the Kluwer Mediation Blog.

Rick is a past Chair of the National ADR Section of the Canadian Bar Association and was the recipient of the 2004 Award of Excellence in ADR from the Ontario Bar Association's ADR Section.

Rick mediates disputes involving a wide variety of subject matter including, Long Term Disability Insurance, Employment, Motor Vehicle Accidents, Historical Sexual Abuse, Construction, Business, Corporate and Contract-related disputes, Medical Malpractice, Professional E&O Claims, Environmental, including spills, IP and IT and a range of other tort claims.

In the past Rick has delivered Mediation and Conflict Resolution training to a wide variety of audiences including The National Judicial Institute (Canada), The Department of Justice (Canada), the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, The Public Service Staff Relations Board, The Canadian Institute for Conflict Resolution, Parks Canada, The Department of National Defence (Canada), The Canadian Transportation Agency, The Royal Bank of Canada, The Bank of Nova Scotia, The Law Society of Upper Canada, The Public Service Alliance of Canada, The Canadian Bar Association and major Canadian law firms. In 2000, he delivered an intensive 6-week mediation-training program for Russian lawyers in Moscow as part of a World Bank justice reform initiative. He was also involved in a Project to establish a Commercial ADR Centre in Tirana, Albania. In 2003, he completed an Inter-American Development Bank consultancy regarding the development of commercial ADR in Guyana. He was also involved in a Court-Connected mediation project in Lesotho.

He has been an adjunct professor, teaching ADR at the University of Ottawa Law School where he currently sponsors the Weiler ADR Prize for Mediation. He has also taught Advanced Mediation at the University of Toronto and has lectured on Conflict Analysis and Process Design as part of the LL.M. in ADR program at Osgoode Hall Law School. He has lectured at Queen's University Law School in Kingston, and serves on the faculty of International Law Institute-African Centre for Legal Excellence (ILI-Uganda). Rick writes and speaks frequently on issues related to mediation and conflict resolution and has been a contributing author to the CCH Alternative Dispute Resolution Practice Manual and LexisNexis Canadian Legal Practice.

Prior to his career in mediation Rick practiced corporate, commercial, real estate, development and tax law.
